

SUMMARY

- Backlog is team's to-do list which is constantly prioritized
- The top of backlog has high level of detail and is ready for the team to start working on it
- It is important that Product Owner is the only person who prioritizes the backlog based on user value